ACTION ALERT: SB 126 & HB 237

60% of students are not proficient readers. 95% of students can learn to read & it's essential they be provided the opportunity to learn. Maryland needs a plan to teach all children to read.

60%

SCHOOLS & PARENTS

TOGETHER

COVID brought parents & schools together as partners in reading. This bill includes parents & teachers as part of the solution on early literacy & creates a collaborative effort to accelerate student learning, prevent & close reading opportunity gaps & improve student outcomes.

A PLAN OPPORTUNITY & EQUITY

A reading and dyslexia best practices handbook is like a road map — it can help districts navigate implementation of evidence based reading practices.

$171 MILLION

$171.5 is dedicated to accelerating & recovering student learning in reading. Another 2.1 Billion in education block grants will be provided to districts.

READING FUNDING

SUPPORTED BY PEDIATRICIANS (AAP-MD), NAACP, SCHOOL PSYCHOLOGISTS(MSPA) & MORE!

A reading & dyslexia handbook provides a cost-effective way to develop & disseminate early literacy best practices to schools, teachers, parents & students #soallcanREAD
