

Literacy for All

Equitable Practices for Reading & Dyslexia

February 20, 2020, 6 Bladen Street, Annapolis, Maryland

Dyslexia Advocacy Day in Annapolis will offer sessions on best practices for reading screening, instruction and interventions presented by the National Center on Improving Literacy (NCIL). Sessions will be specially designed for educators and parents. Attendees can schedule meetings with legislators to advocate for education and mingle with policymakers over cupcakes & coffee.

Time	Topic	Location
8:00am	Community Partner Open House ~ Continental Breakfast & Registration. Explore the services, materials & supports from over 35+ organizations serving striving readers and students with dyslexia.	Room 170
8:30-9:00	Literacy for All , Winifred Winston, State Leader, Decoding Dyslexia MD	Room 180
9:00-10:15	Keynote: Equitable Practices for Reading &amp; Dyslexia: Implementing Strong Screening, Instruction &amp; Interventions for Reading , Sarah Sayko, Deputy Director, NCIL	Room 180
9:30-9:45	Reading, Dyslexia &amp; Education , House Majority Leader, Eric Luedtke, Chair, Revenue Subcommittee, House Ways & Means Committee	Room 180
10:30-11:30	Morning Sessions
	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Screening for Dyslexia &amp; Reading Difficulties, Kelli Cummings, University of Maryland/NCIL, Scott Szczerbiak, Director of Special Education &amp; Cortney Dvorak, Supervisor of Instruction in Reading, St. Mary's County Public Schools (Session for School District Personnel)</li> <li>Reading Instruction and Intervention to Support Equitable Literacy Development, NCIL, Jess Surles (Open Session)</li> <li>Student Advocacy Session, Lauren Stouten (Student session)</li> </ul>	Room 431 Room 180 Room 170
11:30-12:30	Lunch for Attendees	Room 170
12:45-2:00	Afternoon Sessions
	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Screening for Dyslexia &amp; Reading Difficulties, Kelli Cummings, University of Maryland/NCIL, Scott Szczerbiak, Director of Special Education &amp; Cortney Dvorak, Supervisor of Instruction in Reading, St. Mary's County Public Schools (open session)</li> <li>Reading Instruction and Intervention to Support Equitable Literacy Development, National Center on Improving Literacy, Jess Surles (Session for School District Personnel)</li> <li>Family and School Partnerships that Create Positive Student Outcomes, Sarah Sayko, Deputy Director, NCIL (Open Session)</li> </ul>	Room 180 Room 431 Room 170
2:30-4:00	Cupcakes, Coffee &amp; Conversation Open House; 3:00 pm recognition ceremony to honor Senator Shirley Nathan-Pulliam with the Friend of Dyslexia Recognition	Rooms 170 & 180